Happy St. Valentine's Day

Mill Pond Homeowners Association would like to take this opportunity to wish you and your loved ones a very happy St. Valentine's Day.

I found this story about St. Valentine on the internet. Fact or fiction... it is at least very romantic.

According to one legend, Valentinus ignored a decree from Emperor Claudius II that forbade all marriages and betrothals. Caught in the act, Valentinus was Beware of the freebies...

We all want something for nothing. But sometimes we get taken for more than we are willing to pay.

There are some people praying on unsuspecting people in Carrollton. One of our own has had recent attempts made on his property.

They come bearing gifts and advertising for a new company in Carrollton and

The Mill Pond Monuments on Mill Pond Crossing intersecting with Highway 16 and Old Newnan Road are being broken apart by vandals. Witnesses have seen the culprits hanging around the monuments. We believe them to be minor children of residents imprisoned and sentenced to death for secretly conducting several wedding ceremonies.

While imprisoned, the future Saint cured a girl (the jailer's daughter) of her blindness. The poor girl fell madly in love with Valentinus, but could not save him. On the eve of his execution, Valentinus managed to slip a parting message to the girl. The note, of course, was signed "From your Valentine."

*Love feels no burden,
thinks nothing of trouble,
attempts what is above its
strength,
pleads no excuse of
impossibility...
It is therefore able to undertake all things,
and it completes many
things,
and warrants them to take effect,
where he who does not love
would faint and lie down.
Love is watchful and sleeping, slumbereth not.
Though weary, it is not tired;
though pressed, it is not
straitened;
though alarmed, it is not confounded...
